ORDER

GORTON, J.

Because the total number of defendants whose cases remain unresolved is eight, the Court will once again sever the trial currently scheduled to commence in September, 2021.

With respect to the "trial groupings" as to the remaining defendants, the Court has received and reviewed the motion for trial management and to reconsider severance (Docket No. 1909) of the defendant, John Wilson, in which Mr. Wilson renews his request to be tried separately because it would be more efficient and less prejudicial to him. The government opposes the motion (Docket No. 1912).

The Court once again disagrees with the defendant and, for the reasons already stated in its prior Memoranda and Orders, see, e.g., Docket Nos. 1334, 1414, 1438, defendant's motion (Docket No. 1909) is DENIED. See Reyes Canada v. Rey Hernandez, 224 F.R.D. 46, 48 (D.P.R. 2004) (explaining that a motion for reconsideration should be granted only if the court has patently misunderstood a party or there is a significant change in the law or facts since the prior submission on the issues) (citing Bank of Waunakee v. Rochester Cheese Sales, Inc., 906 F.2d 1185, 1191 (7th Cir. 1990)).

Rather than hold eight separate trials for the remaining co-defendants, all of whom are alleged to have participated in a singular conspiracy, the Court will try the five defendants who allegedly conspired with Rick Singer to, among other things, facilitate the admission of their children through the so-called "side door" scheme together in September, 2021 ("the September Trial"). Those defendants are: Abdelaziz, Kimmel, Palatella, Wilson and Zadeh. The remaining alleged "test-cheating" defendants, i.e. Amy Colburn, Gregory Colburn and I-Hsin Chen, will be tried together in January, 2022 ("the January Trial").

The pre-trial schedule deadlines for the September Trial are as follows:

- 1) Reciprocal discovery from defendants: Friday, June 25, 2021;
- 2) Government exhibit/witness lists: Friday, June 25, 2021;
- 3) Defense expert disclosures: Friday, July 2, 2021;

11) Jury trial, opening statements and evidence, to commence on Monday, September 13, 2021, at 9:00 A.M.

With respect to the January Trial, the following pre-trial schedule deadlines shall apply:
